Pfennig Bazaar Beckons Bargain Hunters

Break out your wallets for the bargain event of the year, the Pfennig Bazaar. The largest flea market in the Stuttgart area opens Oct. 4 at the Haus der Wirtschaft in downtown Stuttgart. Operating hours are Oct. 4 and 5, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Oct. 6, 8:30 a.m. to noon. Anyone who enjoys finding a good deal while shopping is sure to discover some real treasures during the three-day event. Sale items are donated by community members and sorted, folded and placed on display tables by volunteers. Items include clothing for all shapes, sizes and genders, household and decorative items, toys, sporting goods, linens, books and more.

Not only does the event foster friendships between the German and American communities, it also raises funds for respective quality-of-life programs. Proceeds of nearly 200,000 marks were generated from the 1998 sale. The annual event, a more than 30-year tradition, is hosted by the German-American Women's Club. For info on volunteering call Brenda Pritchard, 07157-523-047, or Andrea Powers, 07031-230-066.

A briefing concerning the Tricare Dental Program will be presented Oct. 4, 1 p.m. in Patch Barracks Theater. All community members are welcome to attend.

Note Possible Holiday Closures

Oct 3, Reunification Day, is a German national holiday and will affect off-post businesses. Plan accordingly before heading out onto the economy.

Oct. 6 is a U.S. Army Europe training holiday, supporting Columbus Day Oct. 9 and providing a four-day weekend opportunity. Expect office closures both days and call for operating hours.

Fire Prevention Activities Heat Up

Fire Prevention Week activities ignite this year Oct. 8 through 14. Does your family have a home fire escape plan? Develop one and then practice it during the world's largest fire drill, The Great Escape III, Oct. 11 at 7 p.m. Listen for the fire sirens in the housing areas and participate.

Other activities include fire truck visits to local schools and child development centers and a Great Escape contest with a grand prize featuring a free trip to Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida. For info call 421-6192/civ. 0711-7228-6192 or e-mail (faganl@6asg.army.mil).

Larger Civilian Paychecks Projected

Most Appropriated Fund employees enrolled in the Health Benefit Program will receive larger paychecks Nov. 2 when health insurance premiums become non-taxable. The change is automatic unless a waiver is requested and processed by Oct. 6. Waiver request forms are available at the Civilian Personnel Advisory Center, located in building 3315, Kelley Barracks. For info call 421-2665/civ. 0711-729-2665 or visit (www.opm.gov/insure/health/pretaxfehb).

Stuttgart Imposes Further Dog Rules

The city of Stuttgart has imposed new restrictions affecting all dog owners. When owners walk any dog, only short leashes, no longer than 1½ meters long, are allowed. No elastic or roll-out/roll-in leashes are allowed in public. In addition, dogs are barred from all school yards, kindergarten areas, playgrounds, sports fields and recreational areas. Penalties and fines will be assessed as necessary.

Report Suspected Espionage Incidents

Community members who encounter a suspicious incident should not commit themselves to do anything. Ask for time to think over any offers. Remember all details about people, conversations, locations and vehicles. Then report the incident to the Stuttgart Military Intelligence Office, 421-2206/civ. 0711-729-2206.

Maids Rooms are not Spare Bedrooms

Housing residents are reminded that storage rooms, often referred to as maids rooms, are to be used as storage rooms only. Under no circumstances are they authorized to be used as any type of living quarters.

SERVICES

Track Europe-Bound Vehicles Easier

The Military Traffic Command has improved the tracking capability of vehicles being shipped to Europe. Previously, once a vehicle was loaded on a ship at a U.S. port it's precise location was unknown until arrival at a European port weeks later. Members can now more accurately determine the location of their vehicle by visiting (www.whereismypov.com).

Patch Thrift Shop is Ready for Fall
